1973 ties past with present

Enthusiasm and spirit engulf a crowd of Roosevelt basketball supporters.

Memories are an important part of any year and of any yearbook. On all of the division pages, the table of contents, and in other places throughout this book, pictures of students and events of the past fifty years at Roosevelt are used. The people who make up Roosevelt's Golden Anniversary year, 1973, will only represent a small part of the thousands of students and teachers who have passed through its halls. The purpose of this yearbook is not only to show the students and events of Roosevelt in 1973, but also to review the highlights of its past fifty years.

The future may overshadow the past, but the students, teachers, and events of this year will be remembered by this book, the 1973 Roosevelt Roundup.

Art students work hard to finish projects in the new art room.

Planning for college is a big part of the year for many Roosevelt seniors. Bruce Kempkes, Ken Scudder, and Rick Kreamer talk with Gary Dirksen, representative from Central College, in the new counseling center.

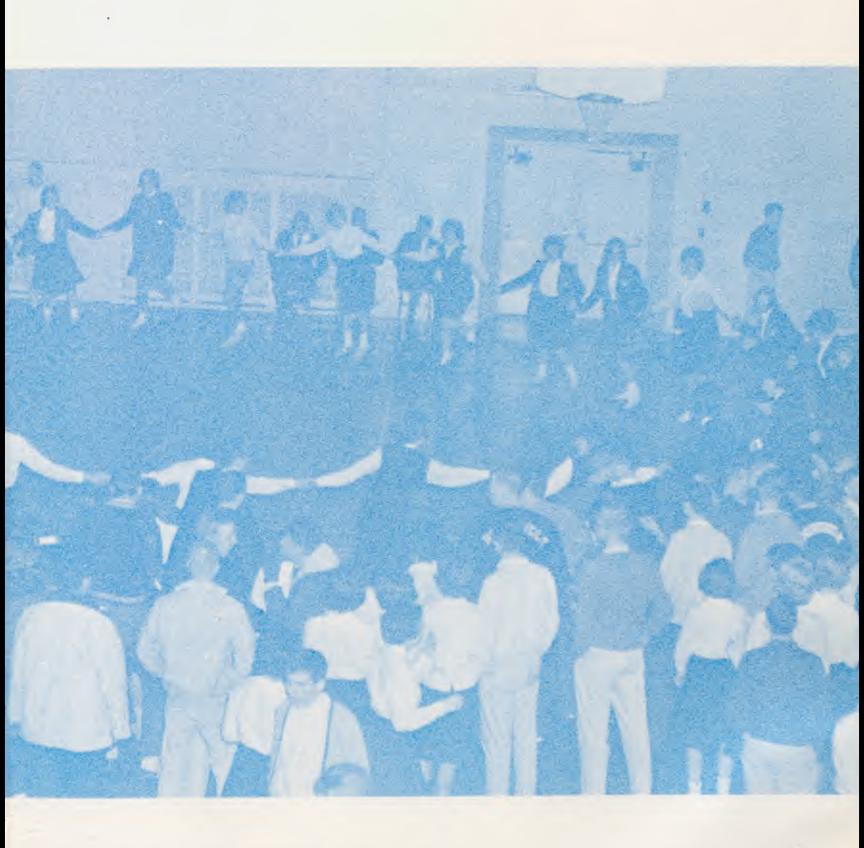

During the 50 years Theodore Roosevelt High School has existed, the world has undergone many changes and has seen periods of depression, hunger, anxiety, and peace. Roosevelt has played a part in shaping this country's history by preparing thousands of students to become an important, functioning part of the world.

For you, Roosevelt may be the best part of your life; a menagerie; or just a step along the way. But whatever T R H S means to you-remember-you and your 1500 fellow students are Roosevelt. You are the spirit, the tradition, the voice, and the body of Roosevelt. Your time spent here has enabled Roosevelt to carry on traditions set during the last 50 years, as well as changing and adding new standards to meet the rapid change of the current world.

As Roosevelt changes, the styles, music, language, and beliefs of all her students change, and are blended to shape this year-1973-as Roosevelt's Golden Anniversary year.

Roosevelt celebrates 50th homecoming

Kris Goddard, elected homecoming queen on November 3, 1972 by the senior class, reigns over Roosevelt's 50th Golden Anniversary.

The highlight of Roosevelt's 50th homecoming was the crowning of Kris Goddard as the 1972 Queen. Amid hundreds of balloons, Doug Reichardt and Paul McGarvey, co-captains of the football team, placed the crown on Kris's head at the traditional Girl's Club homecoming assembly. After the skit was presented, the Roosevelt Mimes were announced winners of the Krazy Kake contest, and Roger Soener was named winner of the annual teddy bear give-away.

November 3 marked the date of the Rider's homecoming victory over Ankeny, 14-8. Roosevelt students, despite the cold temperatures, paraded through the streets in brightly decorated cars to the Valley stadium. During half-time, while 500 blue and white helium balloons filled the sky, student council president, Steve Procter, presented Kris and her attendants to the crowd. In the homecoming court were seniors Beth Beals, Lisa Berry, Carol Bolton, and Leslie Gerdes. Junior Katy Joyce and sophomore Kathy Stuart were elected underclass attendants.

Spirits were high at the homecoming dance the night following the game. The dance, sponsored by the student council committee, was held in the Roosevelt gym amid blue, white, and gold decorations. The theme of this year's dance was "Our Golden Year," and entertainment was provided by the rock group "Geoffrey Stone."

The fall student council of the 1972-73 school year accomplished many things. Under the leadership of Steve Procter the council revised the constitution, passed the gym proposal, worked towards installing the GOAL program, Ride Board and planted trees in the parking lot.

Other officers serving during the fall semester included Vic Mickunas, 1st vice-president; Brian Newlin, 2nd vice-president; Sue Kern, chief justice; Ginger McBride, secretary.

The main topic in the revision of the constitution concerned voting procedures. In previous elections students voted in their homerooms but now they will vote in the auditorium foyer.

The gym proposal now allows boys to have the same gym requirements as girls.

In November some members of the student council planted trees in the parking lot. In the near future the parking lot will be more attractive thanks to the student council.

The student council sponsored many open houses after football and basketball games this semester. A student was always assured of finding something to occupy himself, be it food in the cafeteria or music in the girls gym. The open houses were open to all Roosevelt students. On the left is Kirke Dorweiler, Anne Sommers and an unidentified friend helping with the food.

On November 18th the student council sponsored its first sock hop in more than 20 years. Students were encouraged to come dressed as "greasers." There were prizes given out for the best "greaser," "hula-hooper," and other talents. On the right is Tully Steward and Randy Behre shown as they prepared for the sock hop.

For the past two years Roosevelt students were able to participate in Keck Seminars. These seminars gave the students the chance to get away from the everyday classes and learn about different subjects. The picture at the left is of the planning committee at one of their planning sessions.

Devoted Ragueneau (Jeff Mosher) pleads with the wounded and despondent Cyrano that death is not near.

Jeff Wills wins raves in costume drama

A pompous Cyrano de Bergerac (Jeff Wills) halts the gaudy flourishes of Montfleury's poetry

Seldom does a high school theatrical group undertake the task of performing the classic "Cyrano de Bergerac." The Roosevelt Drama Department established this play as a "classic" last fall on November 10 and 11.

The play, written by French playwright Edmond Rostand, is built around the title character's love for the beautiful Roxanne.

Fearful of her rejection due to his immense nose, the otherwise dauntless Cyrano confides his one and only fear to his friend LeBret.

Cyrano is not alone in his love for Roxanne. A young cadet named Christian captures her heart with his handsome appearance, but is unable to express his love in words.

In a self-sacrificing gesture to preserve Roxanne's illusion, Cyrano cues Christian on what to say.

To spare Roxanne the truth, Cyrano remains silent about Christian for fifteen years after his death, and is discovered only moments before his own untimely end in the convent gardens at Paris.

The dramatization of Cyrano's lifestyle not only revolved around the major characters, but also was assisted through the numerous minor characters of the nuns (Becky Aldridge, Cindy Chamberlain, Val Russell), the cadets (Bob Dickinson, Matt Powers, Brook Wennerstrum, Greg Bodin, Rob Milligan, Paul Craft, and Joel Mosher), the poets (Keith Wuttke, Chris Street, Ann Kitch, Sue Kern, and Heidi Simpson), the actors and actresses (Matt Powers, Joel Mosher, Lisa Michalski, and Karen Buffington), the cooks (Mike Ericson, Mike Sandler, Glenda Parsons, Mary Mitchell, and Barb Stacy), and all the other colorful personalities of the theater crowd (Susie Keck, Mary and Martha Kluender, George Peak, Jim Mishler, Craig Runciman, Doug McKenzie, Tanya Franklin, Dave Rogers, and Mary Carr).

The long hours of practice and dedication were most evident in two very polished performances. Drama department head Roger Anderson merits praise for an excellent directorial job, aided by student directors Lisa Michalski and Michael Harris.

Lovers Christian de Neuvillette (Hank Adams) and Roxanne (Karen Gentleman) share the applause at curtain call expression The somber displayed by Val Russell as a mournful nun depicts the mood felt by all at the time of Cyrano's death.

Cyrano hides the tears he feels as Roxanne tenderly reveals her new-found love.

Dramatists create life beyond the footlights

A standard 50-cent membership fee and interest in the dramatic arts is all one needs to join Drama Club.

Requirements to be initiated into Thespians is a mere $3 fee after earning ten thespian points achieved by assisting the drama department in producing plays by ushering, working on production crews, or performing on stage.

What makes both these organizations unique is the sincerity involved in the desire of the members to bring intelligent entertainment to the audiences. Thespian officers (Jeff Wills, president; Jeff Mosher, vice-president; Sue Moehl, secretary; Diane Dungan, treasurer; Lynn Hopkins, scribe; Ann Kitch, historian; and Susie Keck, refreshment chairperson) expressed it best:

"The purposes of the Roosevelt Drama Department, not as an organization of designed structure, but as an ensemble of the performing arts dedicated to achieving excellence in stagecraft is:

- 1.) Not to split the ears of the groundlings capable only of inexplicable dumb shows and noise. As Hamlet puts it, 'but to create a bit of life beyond the footlights.'
- To take a black and white script and create a living, breathing creation.
- 3.) To instruct students and all interested in this finest of the arts.
- 4.) To act well our parts, for there all honor lies."

Every Sunday one will discover 13 pantomimists diligently creating and practicing original skits concerning anything from making obscene phone calls to building castles in imaginary sand.

After hours of discussion and experimentation of ideas, the Mimes are prepared to appear before a wide variety of audiences. This year their performances were presented at elementary schools, fraternal organizations, women's clubs, nursing homes, banquets, the lowa State Fair, and Roosevelt's "man-of-the-year" assembly. "Sounds of Silence" climaxed their school year, May 18, with 90 minutes of pantomimes interspersed with three one-act skits.

Black grease paint drawn in fine lines over clown white make-up, multi-colored shirts, and black tights and trunks not only enhanced their performances, but helped them to lose their identities so that they could transform into any character required. Also, their costumes added uniformity to the troupe, but each still retained his or her own individuality through a different pastel-colored shirt worn by each Mime.

"Our make-up seems to fascinate children more than our 25 minute performances," commented Master Mime Jenny Cochran. "The grade school kids always inquire about what the clown white feels like. One show we told them it felt like a cross between Crisco and peanut butter, and a boy from the back of the auditorium yelled, 'Is it chunky or smooth?'"

Approximately a week before Senior Frolics, Mime tryouts are held. Two days of clinics are offered where the 13 members teach some of the techniques of pantomime. Then, after two more days of judging improvisational and prepared two minute pantomimes, they attempt to discreetly choose those who appear to have the most outstanding originality, imagination, and mime techniques.

Choruses have a busy year

Fall, for the Roosevelt choruses, under the direction of Mr. Delbert Schiebel, was filled with performances outside the school. Shows by the Concert Chorus, Roosevelt Singers, and Swing Choir included the Rotary Club, the Downtown Kiwanas Club, and Hyperion Country Club. The Concert Chorus was involved in an entire service at New Christian Church.

Roosevelt extends its congratulations to Cindy Selzer, Natalie Fobes, Jeff Mosher, Joel Mosher, and Quentin Childs who were involved in All State Chorus under the direction of Dr. Howard Swan of U.C.L.A.

Spring brought on new challenges. Many chorus members were involved in the Roosevelt production of "Pajama Game". Then the Spring Solo and Small Ensemble brought "1" ratings to Roosevelt students Quentin Childs, Joel Mosher, the Girl's Sextet, and the Boy's Quartet. This spring the choruses also performed at the neighboring Junior High Schools.

The highlight of the spring concert was Joseph Haydn's "Missa Sancti Nicolai" performed by the Concert Chorus, two quartets, and a soprano soloist. Selections by all five of the choruses made up the rest of the concert.

New music facilities inspire various bands at Roosevelt

Stage Band provides the music for dancing daddies and daughters at the Daddy-Daughter Dinner held February 22.

The first adequate instrumental music facilities at Roosevelt in fifty years proved very beneficial for the music department this year. Under the direction of Robert Bagley, the Pep Band, Marching Band, Stage Band, and Concert Band played at nine football games, six home basketball games along with various other school activities.

The annual winter and spring concerts were put on by both the band and orchestra. On April 5 the Stage Band was invited to play for the Rotary Club. In April and May the bands were kept busy preparing for the Drake Relays and Armed Forces Day Parade.

Clarinetist Julie Hintz, junior, was named as a member of the 1972 All-State Band. Julie also received the award of being in the Iowa University High School Honor Band.

Roosevelt hosted the All-West Band Festival on March 13, being the only senior high school participating. Three junior highs and twelve elementary schools were also present.

Roosevelt orchestra excels in "Pajama Game"

The Roosevelt orchestra highlighted their season by performing the difficult production numbers of the spring play, "Pajama Game." Steam Heat and other musical arrangements were included in this accompaniment by the orchestra.

The orchestra also demonstrated their musical talents by presenting an instrumental music program in the fall and another program in May.

A few orchestra members were especially recognized by excelling in the State Solo and Ensemble Contest in Ames on March 30th. Three students received an excellent rating. They are Joe Kingkade, baritone; Sharon Pilmer, violin and Karen Daniels, violin. The Brass Choir also received a one rating.

The officers of the orchestra this year were Lori Roxberg, secretary, and student directors Karen Buffington and Julie Hintz.

Jan Thomas proves that the female sex can also carry out a tune on the trumpet.

Row 4: Cindy Bergdorf, Myra Rodigas, Marcia Roby, Debbie Halderman, Drinda Stanger, Sandy Miller.

Many hours of practice paid off as the band, Riderettes, and Flag Cadets worked hard again this year, adding to the spirit of Roosevelt football and basketball games.

The marching band, sponsored by Mr. Robert Bagley and led by drum major Joe Kingkade, consisted of 80 members. The 36 Riderettes were headed by Claire Schweiker.

The band performed a combined show this year with the North band. Other activities included a show at Drake in November, and a winter concert with the orchestra in January.

The pep band played at home basketball games with occasional performances by the Riderettes, and their traditional "stripper" act.

The band and Riderettes perform during halftime at the Homecoming game, forming an "R" to bring a climax to the Rider Spirit.

"Cheerleading is more than yelling, jumping, and making signs. It's learning, working, projecting your excitement and your smile." explained Varsity captain Sibyl Kauffman.

These 12 girls cheered at more sports events than any previous squad. With the addition of girl's sports to the Des Moines schools, the cheerleaders led spirited fans at girl's swimming and basketball games, as well as football games, boy's basketball, and boy's swimming meets.

Besides cheering at actual games, the cheerleaders had many behind the scene activities. After spring try-outs, the squad had summer practices four times a week.

Secretary Mary Cunningham was in charge of locker decorations used each week along with posters, streamers, and balloons, to promote team spirit.

Seniors Becky Davis and Mary Cunningham project their spirit on stage at the Dowling pep assembly.

Wrestling cheerleaders spark team spirit

Six wrestling cheerleaders worked together closely this season to help spark spirit at cross country and wrestling meets.

Led by captain Beth Beals, and secretary Lisa Berry, the girls held daily summer practices in preparation for their season.

During the wrestling season, the cheerleaders had dinners before the meets. They attended out-of-town meets in Johnston, S.E. Polk, Ames, Creston, and Indianola. The girls had an overnight stay in Harlan for the district meet.

Beth Beals emphasizes her point at a Roosevelt wrestling meet,

The 1972-73 school year brought about an eventful nine months for Girls' Club. Most of their time was spent working actively for the community and

At the beginning of the year the club had a Big-Little Sister Tea to help new girls get acquainted. This year the tea surely helped a few girls from getting lost the first several days.

During the football season Pep Club and School Spirit were kept busy decorating the houses and lockers of the football team. Occasionally the streamers also reached the coach's house.

Thanksgiving was more pleasant for a Des Moines family to whom the club donated the results of a canned foods drive and a fresh turkey. Flowers and clothing were also sent to the mother who was very ill in the hospital.

Calvin Manor, Convalescent Home, and Blind Ladies committees all had Christmas parties at the respective places during the holiday season.

"You've Got A Friend" was the theme of the Daddy-Daughter Dinner held on February 22 in the school cafeteria. Girls were able to dance with their dads for the first year.

Money making projects included the Krazy Kake Kontest, Mr. Legs, and selling of caramel apples, key chains, TRHS decals, and chocolate bars.

Spinister Spree on March 31 was once again a huge success. Couples who attended "Over the Rainbow" were accompanied by "Morningstar" and Man of the Year for 1973 was announced.

The year ended with the installation of a new board, sad good-byes, and wishes of good luck.

Roosevelt ski club plans two trips

Todd Fatland and Killer Milligan rest during the Steamboat Ski trip.

This year Ski Club members planned two major trips. The first, in January, was to Telemark, in northern Wisconsin. The February ski trip was to Steamboat, Colorado.

Both trips took place over a weekend and both resulted in a lot of fun and interesting experiences, as well as bruises and bumps for many. However, there were no broken bones so everyone remained happy.

Ski Club members range from the very beginner to the very proficient skier. This was a nice arrangement because there was always someone there to help others learn and perfect their skiing skills.

Ski Club meetings were held occasionally after school in Mr. Holcomb's room, the club sponsor. Here films of skiing were viewed and planned trips were discussed.

Many club members go skiing in areas in Iowa, which provide a day's entertainment, and some make their ways around the country to ski on more challenging slopes.

Club sponsor, Mrs. Cole, is fondly called "Eula."

Leaders club is an organization which aids Mrs. Eula Cole with gym classes throughout the year. The responsibilities of the 56 girls are to see that attendance is taken, exercises are led, and games are refereed.

Leaders meetings were held Tuesday afternoons in room 249. Many weekend get-togethers, or potlucks, were held, along with a dinner given for the Sharks club, wishing them good luck on their annual pageant.

A major event for the club was the welcoming of 18 new members. Girls were chosen in October, on the basis of the results of a skills test and a written test. Their initiation lasted into November. The "lowlies" carried candy, wore traditional blue and white outfits, and presented skits and poems for the club. The "lowlies" were also winners in the Krazy Kake contest.

Leaders club was busy with service projects this year. At Thanksgiving canned food and fruit was collected, and with the treasury money a turkey was bought and given to a needy family.

Several bake sales were held at Roosevelt throughout the year to add money to the club's treasury.

During the football season Leaders decorated player's homes and a telegram was sent to the team before the homecoming game.

Fall leader officers were president, Nancy Oldt; vice-president, Sara Schlievert; secretary, Vicki Weber; and treasurer, Kim Stone.

Spring officers were Janet Hurd, president; Margie Huddleson, vice-president; Bev Winters, secretary; and Ann Sommers, treasurer.

Many very intricate and graceful moves are performed by the Sharks as part of their routines.

The 36 members of Roosevelt's Sharks Club work all year towards their annual spring pageant.

Sponsored by Mrs. Nancy Swanson, the officers for this year were; 1st semester: Marilee Urban, president; Jana Brogden, vice-president; Holly Moore, secretary; and Carole Johnson, treasurer. Second semester officers were: Becky Davis, president; Julie Schnitger, vice-president; Debbie Houghton, secretary; and Margaret Thomsen, treasurer.

Formulating plans for pageant routines and costumes are made in the fall. Actual practice starts in the second semester, about two months before the show.

Over 1000 people attended the year's pageant held on March 22,23, and 24. A little bit of the excitement of New York came to Roosevelt this year, as the Sharks presented their theme of, "A Night on Broadway." The backdrops, made jointly by the art department and members of the club, consisted of hand painted replicas of the original Broadway theme pictures.

Sharks must practice many hours before a successful pageant can be produced.

Master of ceremonies, Max Spilka, announced the familiar succession of music that was accompanied by synchronized swimming routines in a variety of costumes and moods. "South Pacific," "Applause," "Babes in Toyland," and "West Side Story," were just a few of the musicals from which selections were taken.

The senior soloist this year was Claire Schweiker, who performed to, "The Impossible Dream," from THE MAN FROM LA MANCHA. The senior duet was performed by the two presidents, Becky Davis and Marilee Urban.

The highlight of the pageant was the presentation of the outstanding senior Shark, a tradition that was started this year. Terri Stevenson, who graduated in January, returned to accept the award, and then to star in the senior finale, "Hello Dolly."

Even under water Sharks always look their best.

Mr. Namminga, Megan Stevenson, and Michelle Foster enjoy a cold bottle of pop at Student Council "Fun Night."

Spring semester student council officers were: Rosi Gowdey, president; Jim Wine, 1st vice-president; Sue Keck, 2nd vice-president; Carolyn Kelley, secretary-treasurer; and Marni Hockenberg, chief justice. They were elected under the new procedure of using voting machines for council elections. Mr. Douglas Johnson is the sponsor of Student Council.

The Student Judiciary Council consists of students interested in helping their fellow students understanding their rights and privileges here at Roosevelt.

Student Council participated in many fund-raising activities. On March 10, forty-two Roosevelt students were stuffed into a Pontiac Ventura at Sumner Pontiac. On Friday, March 9, the council sponsored "Fun Night." There was an open gym and pool, and roller skating in the upstairs halls. The council made $350 profit from the evening. Music was provided in the girls' gym by "Stone Grove."

The Human Relations Committee was formed this semester. Its purpose is to promote better interpersonal and interracial relations between all students.

Many improvements are also being assisted by council. Council members are pushing for more bike racks, and are helping on the proposed bike trails in Des Moines.

On March 24, the council held a dance marathon at school. The winners went to the marathon held at Drake. All the funds raised went to the Muscular Dystrophy fund.

Spring musical depicts management vs. labor

Management versus labor was the theme of this year's spring play. The play, which was presented on April 6 and 7, was directed by Mr. R.C. Anderson

Mr. Del Schiebel skillfully directed the music involved in the play including direction of the chorus and working with the principals.

Assisted by Wendy Barron, Mary Joyce Lynde did the choreography for what turned out to be a difficult score. On the technical side of the production was Mr. Art Holcomb directing. Without the help of the directors the efforts of the students would have led to disaster.

Despite the difficulty in co-ordination of practices for a large case, poor stage equipment, sound problems and a few minor personality conflicts, the play was an overwhelming success.

Pajama Game drew record breaking crowds and kept the audience filled with anticipation during each performance

Pajama Game could be ranked in success among "My Fair Lady" and "Hello Dolly" in the annals of great Roosevelt plays produced in its' 50 years of drama.

In the plot, Sid (Jeff Mosher) is employed as superintendent of the Sleep-Tite Pajama Factory in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Among the conflicts he encounters are the Grievance Committee, headed by Babe Williams (Jenny Cochoran) with whom romance also flames, a domineering boss, Mr. Hassler (Joel Mosher) and a progressive "Time Study Man" Hines (Jeff Wills).

Sid takes the side of management and labor in the big disagreement between management and labor over a "seven and a half cent" raise thus temporarily snuffing his romance with Babe, who sides with labor.

Finally Sid patches up the labormanagement sturggle when labor gets their raise and he re-kindles his romance with Babe.

Other major characters were Gladys, Sīd's secretary, played by Natalie Fobes and Prez, the president of the union played by Judd Maher.

Supporting characters were Lynne Hopkins, Linda Johnson, Doug McKenzie, George Peak, Ellie Rosenfled, Craig Runciman, John Waters, Brook Wennerstrum, and Fred Wilson.

Sue Moehl brought down the house with her comic portrayal of Mabel, Sid's matronly secretary.

The music and dancing were strong throughout the play, highlighted by "Once-a-Year Day", "Hernando's Hideway", "Steam Heat", and "I'll Never Be Jealous Again".

Student director of the play was Sue Keck aided by production manager Ann Kitch.

Much work was put in by the cast, chorus, dancers, crews, and directors. This teamwork was revealed in an outstanding performance by all.

Hines sees to it that the employees work a full days' work for a full days pay.

Roundup staff works to meet deadline goal

Meeting the deadlines and putting out a good newspaper were the main goals of the fall Roundup staff. Headed by editor Carol Garten, managing editor Dori Nagarner, and copy editor Ellen Cosson, the fall staff put out eleven issues, including a special Homecoming issue. Diane Dungan and her staff added to the interest on pages with their photography.

Each page of the Roundup has its own editor. Page one editor Karin White, assisted by Kris Narber, Brian Newlin, and Jim Mishler, strived for objectivity in front page news coverage.

The editorial page was headed by Leslie Gerdes, with staff Ann Sommers, Vic Mickunas, and Mark Kaninsky. They kept up a liberal policy for this controversial Roundup page.

The sports page, edited by Ray Hays, was made up by Sibyl Kauffman, Craig Harr, and Dan Downey. This year, the addition of two more girls' sports added contrast and variety to the page.

Page four captured news interest stories not covered by the other pages. Edited by Sara Schliervert, page four was written by Nancy Wallace, Cathy Dennis, and Jim Davis.

Myra Rabinowtz, ad manager, uses her charm and the telephone to secure advertising for each issue of the paper.

Craig Harr finishes a sports article early, easing the rush of deadlines.

Kristie Walker, business manager, accounts for the financial state of the Roundup.

Spring newspaper staff is productive

Creativity and interesting editorials were the key factors of success for the Spring newspaper staff.

The twelve member Spring Roundup Staff, headed by Karen Gentleman, strived to print news that was important and interesting to Roosevelt students.

Nostalgia, hard work combined for Golden Anniversary yearbook

Editor Marc Squillante and Associate editor Joyce Moore make plans for the final deadline.

A little bit of nostalgia and a lot of hard work made for an exciting year for the 1973 annual staff as they published Roosevelt's Golden Anniversary yearbook.

Under the leadership of Editor Marc Squillante, and associate editor Joyce Moore, twenty staff members put in long hours in order to meet the four staff deadlines.

The staff was not chosen until late October, which was a slight disadvantage because many activities such as football games, pep assemblies, open houses, and schoo'l projects could not be covered.

Pictures from previous years were used for all the division pages, as well as for the table of contents. "By using the old pictures, we're trying to make sure that we don't lose touch with some of the traditions and events that have become so much a part of the Roosevelt way of life," commented Marc.

"Over the rainbow" at Spree

Minus a few Munchkins, Judy Garland, and a broken dunking booth, the Girls' Club used the theme "Over the Rainbow" to highlight their annual Spinsters' Spree.

After many laborious hours by committee members, the boys' gym was transformed into a miniature Oz, complete with Glinda, The Scarecrow, and Toto, to name a few.

Spree has traditionally been one of the more entertaining dances, and this year was no exception. The gym floor, lined with decorative booths, and topped with an umbrella of colored crepe paper, provided ample room to dance to the throbbing sounds of "Morning Star."

Capping the evening's festivities was the crowning of the Man of the Year. Denny Sears, familiarly known as "Bones," was crowned as this year's best Roosevelt man. The other candidates were Tom Economis, Don Hurley, Steve Procter and Kimmo Aura.

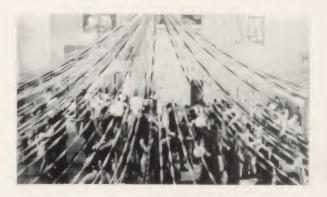

Relaxing for a moment, jovial Barry Riegel entertains his escort for the evening, Mimi Meintel.

Trancelike, a member of the group "Morning Star" picks out a tune on his steel guitar.

Taking full advantage of the Kissing Booth, Duncan Moore releases his sexual inhibitions on Lynn Hopkins.

Under a canopy of color, the boys' gym turns into a spacious dance floor for cuddling couples.

International Club provides interest and understanding

The International Club has pursued a greater international understanding, a cultural exchange of ideas and activities and has held discussions of foreign affairs, and differing customs.

All foreign students and Roosevelt students who have traveled abroad are invited to participate in this club. This year five foreign exchange students involved themselves in the activities of International Club. These students were: Kimmo Aura, Silvio Hepp, Harja Luijs, Thomas Rimkus and Kris Songedol.

Meetings were held once every two weeks. Presentations, discussions of personal travel experiences and talks by the foreign students of their home countries were often included in these meetings.

The main event of the year was the Foreign Student Assembly. Each exchange student spoke of his life both in his country and in the United States. This assembly enabled Roosevelt students to become more acquainted with the foreign students and aided in closing the gap of understanding.

Foreign students active at TRHS

Foreign students Kirsten Songedal, Garciela Kramer, Thomas Rimkus, Kimmo Aura, and Silvio Hepp get together during the holiday season.

Foreign students fit in well with the activities at Roosevelt. This year seven foreign students spent their senior years at Roosevelt.

Kimmo Aura, an exchange student from Finland, was a member of the TRHS football team.

Thomas Rimkus, from Germany, and Silvio Hepp, from Switzerland, participated in the Roosevelt Ski Club and gave advanced ski instruction to fellow members.

Other foreign students attending Roosevelt were Graciela Kramer of Argentina, Harja Luijs, from Holland, and Towzi Alfozan, from Kuwait.

Silvio and Harja pause from their studies, above while two exchange students ask Steve Procter for directions.

ROW 6: Leslie Gerdes, Cath Carpenter, Denise Earlywine, Karen Enabnit, Nancy McGarth, Wendy Nelson, Sun Kelson, Carol Hardio.

Language clubs continued to provide interest and understanding of foreign cultures for students at Roosevelt.

Sponsored by Monsieur Gary Thelen and led by president Bob Foss, the French Club began the year with a picnic featuring French breads and cheeses. Before opening night of the fall play, "Cyrano de Bergerac," the club sponsored a "soiree" serving hot and cold hors d'heurves. A six-course French dinner was served to members at their Christmas party held at the Des Moines Golf and Country Club. The club travelled to Pella in the spring to see a performance of a play by Molière. Other officers were vice-president Janet Hurd; Marni Hockenburg, treasurer; and Carol Hepplewhite, secretary.

Under the leadership of president Margaret Thomsen, the Spanish Club participated in many activities. Sponsored by Senior Luis Nunez, the club organized the Chilean booth at the Foreign Food Fair. At Christmas, the club furnished holiday trimmings to a low-income, Spanish-speaking family. One of their most popular functions were their Latin-American potlucks. The president was assisted by vice-president Janet Hurd, treasurer Mary Carr, and secretary Debbie Vickery.

Latin Club was led by president Keith Wuttke. Their activities included a Halloween bake sale and preparations for the All-City Roman Banquet and the State Latin Club Convention in Boone.

Time and effort of crews support TRHS

Roosevelt productions run smoothly due to the efficient work of the VTR, stage, and sound crewmen. Without them Roosevelt would surely be missing many of the vital services they perform, which we usually take for granted.

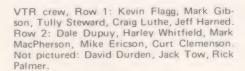

The VTR staff, sponsored by Mrs. Ruby Wells, tapes speakers here at Roosevelt and special television programs for later use. They are involved in taping class projects such as commercials, weather reports and sales presentations. Sports events are also recorded by the VTR crew.

Mr. Art Holcomb sponsors the stage crew, who are responsible for building scenery, setting up, and running the stage for all the assemblies and plays here at Roosevelt. This includes any outside group using our auditorium.

The sound crew, under the sponsorship of Mr. Herman Kirkpatrick, sets up and operates the P.A. equipment for all TRHS systems. This includes sound for plays and musicals along with the various rooms.

Jeff Wills joins crew members Tully Steward and Craig Luthe in finding suitable Sock-Hop tunes.

DECA, Office Education, help ready students for jobs

Office Education members are: Row 1: Holly Moore, Teri Dietz, Joyce Baker, Carol Whitehurst. Row 2: Mary Weidmeier, Terri Stevenson, Tami O'Dell, Cindy Betts, and Gaylene Narcisse.

The Distributive Education Club of America (DECA) offers an opportunity for students to work in the afternoon and attend classes in the morning, which consist of job training or required courses. To qualify for the club each member has taken one semester of salesmanship and one semester of business training.

This year the club participated in an all-state DECA conference, in which seminars were held and members became acquainted with DECA students from different areas in Iowa. In the spring DECA members attended an employer-employee banquet.

Interest in DECA has increased because it gives students a chance to earn money, to receive valuable training, and to act as responsible employees.

Mr. Else was sponsor of DECA this year.

The highlight of the Office Education Club this year was the attendance of the national convention in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Members of the club also attended the state contests at the Hotel Savery in Des Moines.

Office Education members were busy raising money for their treasury by selling Roosevelt bumper stickers, boxes of Heath candy, Roosevelt's Odin buttons, and megaphones.

Leading the group this year were officers Teri Dietz, president; Tami O'Dell, vice-president; Cindy Betts, secretary; and Holly Moore, treasurer. Mrs. Witzenburg was the sponsor.

Escapades, style shows, highlight equestrian and homemaking clubs

A wardrobe demonstration and discussion, presented by Dee Jay McDowell and Jennifer Lock from Younker's Teen Board, highlighted one meeting of the Homemaking Club. They showed the club how to mix and match clothing, and how to co-ordinate outfits.

At Christmas the Homemaking Club decorated the homemaking rooms to celebrate the holidays. They held their annual Christmas party, and bake sale.

The sponsors of the club, Mrs. Kathryn Lapham, Miss Sandra Hasenclever, and Miss Ruth Baumgartner, discussed careers in homemaking and life in college surroundings with the girls.

Leading the Homemaking Club were: Diane Harris, president; Kathy Hogan, vice-president; Linda Rosen, secretary; and Mindy Bordt, treasurer.

The major project for the Equestrian Club this year, was the "Equestrian's Escapades," held April 22nd. The club worked many hard hours for the show throughout the year to earn money for next year's treasury.

Equestrians also had a picnic and a campout as part of their activities.

Officers were: Kim Carpenter, president; Connie Pintus, vice-president; Sherri Webster, secretary; and Karen Smith, treasurer. Mr. Keith Carlson was sponsor of the club.

Staff receives assistance from Roosevelt students

Library helpers: Jim Wolf, Karen Gentleman, Kathy Hanlon, Eveline Scott, Paula Holmes.

Most everyone uses the library at some time. Requests are often made to the librarians to find old periodicals or to check out books. These jobs are accomplished more quickly with the help of library assistants. Other duties besides these are made easier for the librarians with this aid, such as shelving and processing books.

Our school nurse has many responsibilities. Her job is made easier by the assistance of student nurse monitors. Mrs. Bridget Sweet's monitors serve her in several ways, such as checking people in, receiving some of the phone calls, and administering first aid if the nurse doesn't happen to be present.

Various jobs in the office require extra assistance to keep things running smoothly. Office helpers provide their services to the regular office staff, creating an easier, more organized atmosphere. Their jobs include clerical work, running errands, leaving messages in boxes, answering phone calls, and connecting switchboard messages.

Office helpers: Joanne Street, Kristi Chambers, Cindy Schultze, Lynn Randolph, Laurel Prior.

Individuals outstanding for Chess and Debate

Although team records were not outstanding as compared with previous years, individual performances were the highlights of the season for the Roosevelt High School Chess and Debate clubs.

The Rider Chess Club started the year off strong, with Doug Eckley capturing first place in the Iowa High School Chess Association championships held in February. Later in the spring, seven members from the team played in the state championships at the Des Moines' YMCA. The chessmen tied for first place in the meet with a team from Urbandale High School.

Other members of the team were Mark Arnold, Doug Stolz, Keith Wuttke, Bruce Leiserowitz, Chip Bunce, and Dale Bunce.

Stolz, Eckley, Wuttke, and Leiserowitz traveled to Chicago in April to compete in the National High School Chess Tournament, where they finished a disappointing eighteenth.

The Roosevelt Debate team, with the varsity team made up of Sam Kreamer, Jim Wine, Cathy Carpenter, and Pam Davis, novice team made up of Joyce Dostale, John Snider, Dana Huenneman, and Gayla Nesibtt, and the two-man championship team consisting of Jim Prall and Daryl McNeal, also had disappointing seasons on the team level. However, individual performances were outstanding.

In dramatic interpretation, Karen Gentlemen took first, second, and third place trophies. In radio speaking, Mike Higgins received a "1" rating. Mike Badower received a "1" rating in oratory, Julie Rabinowitz a "1" rating in poetry, and Sam, Daryl, Jim Wine and Jim Prall all placed in extemporaneous speaking. All Competition was sponsored by the lowa High School Speech Association.

Riders take second in Metro

The Riders started their season with a heartbreaking 25-22 loss to the Newton Cardinals. Ends Denny Sears and Brad Worman were instrumental in keeping the Riders close to victory, Sears catching a 13-yard TD pass, and Worman nailing important first down passes. However, two long drives by Newton and the time clock prevented the Riders from grasping their first victory.

The Hoover Huskies, a strong contender for the Metro conference crown awaited the Riders. The game was to be a turn-around for the winless Riders.

On September 16, the Riders won their first game of the season, upsetting the heavily favored Huskies, 29-25.

It appeared that Hoover was going to break the game open, netting a 13-0 second quarter lead. The Riders bounced back onto the scoreboard, but the Huskies were ahead 25-21 with 5:54 left in the game. The Riders drove down to the Husky 17-yard line and were stalled three times. On fourth down, Craig Schroeder caught the winning touchdown and the Riders evened their record at 1-1.

The Rider offense proved to be too much for the North High Polar Bears the following weekend.

After racing to a 34-6 lead, the defense held on for a 34-24 victory. Craig Schroeder scored on an 18-yard endaround play and also on a 90-yard kickoff return. A Sears-Reichardt combination accounted for two other touchdowns.

Roosevelt edged by Tech in their next game winning 22-14 in the Metro's first overtime game in history. The Riders scored the first time they had the ball on one of Joe Tilton's three touchdowns. Tech dominated the second half with Pierre Blackwell's scoring scamper and Curt Forrester's scoring pass. But the Riders prevailed in overtime with Tilton's final plunge, Tech failed to knot the score, the Rider defensive backs knocking down three passes.

Roosevelts defense recorded its only shutout of the season in a 14-0 victory over East. Maxie Olson's interception set up the Riders first score on a Joe Tilton touchdown reception. Tilton was practically unstoppable against the Scarlets, piling up more than 100 yards rushing. Roosevelts offensive line had probably their finest game of the season, opening up holes for the Rider ball carriers, led by Paul McGarvey and Ray Hayes. The Riders other score came on a pass to Craig Schroeder. The specialty teams, led by seniors Jim Davis and punter Max Olson kept the Scarlets in a hole all evening.

Mike Burford, Mark Sloan, and Bob Bennett meet the challenge of the Ankeny offense in a 14-8 Homecoming victory.

Fine season surprises many

On October 13 the Riders suffered one of the worst defeats in Roosevelt's 50 years. The Dowling Maroons displayed an unbelievable amount of offensive power that rolled up a 44-0 halftime lead and finished the game with the score standing at 71-16. The game decided the conference championship for the second straight year. The Maroons rolled up over 500 yards rushing in the onslaught. Doug Reichardt's first two passes were intercepted, one of which was returned for a touchdown as Dowling took a 14-0 lead. Reichardt came back in the second half and combined with Dennis Sears for two scoring strikes to get the Riders on the scoreboard.

The Riders came back the next week by dumping Valley 34-15. The Riders established a strong running attack that ground out over 330 yards. Junior full-back Mark Sloan and halfback Joe Tilton stung the Valley defense constantly until the reserves took over in the fourth quarter. As the offense piled on five touchdowns, the defense held them scoreless between an opening Valley touch-down and a last-minute Tiger score.

Roosevelt wound up its Metro season being upset by Lincoln in the final 24 seconds, 24-20. Lincoln took the lead when Doug Reichardt's fumble was recovered and taken in for an 8-yard score. Reichardt rebounded as he danced in for a 16-yard score. Linebacker Mark Sloan picked off a stray Lincoln pass and raced untouched for a 69-yard score, thanks to blocks by Mike Burford and Maxie Olson. Lincoln came back in the second half and took a 18-14 lead on touchdown passes of 63 and 76 yards. Dennis Sears grabbed a 12-yard TD pass to put the Riders in the lead 20-18. The Railsplitters took the ball over on a quarterback sneak with just :24 to complete the scoring. The defensive line headed by defensive end Bruce Kempkes, tackle John Hand and linebacker Curt Burns turned in a strong effort holding Lincoln's potent rushing attack to under a 3-yard average.

Roosevelt ended its 50th season with a 14-8 Homecoming victory over the Hawks of rural Ankeny. This would be the final appearance in a Rider uniform for 17 seniors. Joe Tilton opened up the scoring with a 2-yard dance into the end zone. Tilton then capped a Rider drive with a short pass reception for the final Rider points of the season. The Rider defense held Ankeny on a last minute drive, sacking the Hawk quarterback twice before the clock ran out.

Roosevelt placed five men on the all-Metro teams. Linemen Paul McGarvey and Ray Hays represented Roosevelt along with quarterback Doug Reichardt and Joe Tilton. Denny Sears was selected as wide receiver.

Experts predicted the inexperienced Riders for a poor 3-6 record. Roosevelt turned this around for a surprising 6-3 season. Only a few seconds on the clock prevented them from having one of the best won-lost records at Roosevelt.

The team's attitude and character was best exemplified by senior Todd Fatland, who spent his entire varsity career on the sidelines, caring more about the team than his own personal goals.

The Roosevelt Sophomore football squad finished in fifth place in the Metro race with a 2-6 record.

Ankeny buried the Riders in the season's opener 46-16. Art Lee and Dan Hurtle sparked the Riders with their long T.D. runs. The game was tied 16-16 before an Ankeny rally made the score 22-16 at half. The Rider's defense crumbled in the second half as Ankeny won it 46-16.

The Rider's first victory came at the expense of west-side rival Hoover in a 24-23 thriller. Two long touchdowns sparked the Rider attack to victory.

North proved to be too much for the Riders as they rolled to a 30-18 victory. A tremendous running-passing attack demolished the Rider defense.

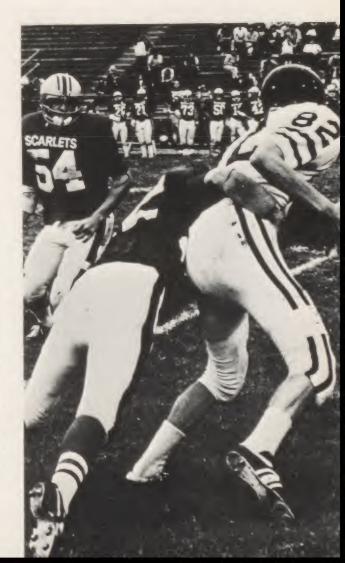

The riders got back on the winning track with a 32-6 breeze past Tech. The Tech defense couldn't stop the Rider offense as the Riders rolled to a 2-1 Metro mark.

Things turned around in the East game. The Scarlets romped to an impressive 66-20 victory, as the Riders couldn't stop a potent ground attack.

The Sophs suffered their first shutout of the season as Dowling won 44-0. A potent offensive attack seemed to roll at ease against the Rider defense. Valley scored all their points in the first half and held on to win what proved to be a very controversial game. The Riders scored a safety but it should have been ruled a T.D., thus giving the Riders the

The Riders lost their last game 26-22 to Lincoln. The Sophs dominated the whole game but a last-second T.D. pass gave Lincoln the winning score.

Roosevelt's 1972 Cross Country team headed by new coach Irwin Kawarsky lacked the experience needed for a winning season. Comprised of mostly underclassmen the Harriers will have a fine nucleus of runners for next season.

The Riders began the season with losses to East and Hoover with scores 17-42 and 14-28 respectively. Mike Hurst was the leading TRHS runner in the Ames Invitational with a time of 8:07 for the 1½ mile. Hurst also led the Harriers in the Hoover 1 mile run with a time of 5:20. Junior Ron Bruning finished with a 5:04 for the state mile meet held in Ames. Lincoln and Valley both topped the Riders in a triangular meet held at Waveland with Hurst leading the Rough Rider runners.

In a dual meet with Dowling the Riders tied with 29 points apiece. The Grinnel, Urbandale and Augustine Invitational were both weak showings by the Riders with Hurst and Bruning the leading runners. On the Grandview course the Harriers finished 6th in the Metro Meet. They closed the season by taking 21st in the state meet at Marshalltown.

Harriers prepare to run in the city meet held at Grandview. Riders placed sixth in the meet.

Girl tankers take state!

Coached by Mr. Tom Reed, the 1972 girls tankers finished the dual meet season with a 7-1 record. In district competition the team tied for first with Valley, and later the girls won the state title for the second time in Roosevelt history. They finished 12 points ahead of second-place Hoover, ending the Marlin winning streak.

Beginning the state meet with an important fourth-place victory, the medley relay, with Holly Hutchison, Nat Fobes, Kathy Jones and Carol Ely, established the fighting efforts of the team that continued until the last race.

Kim Carpenter broke several records during the season and became the state champion in the 400-yard freestyle with a state and national record-breaking time of 4:33:08. She also placed third in the 200 freestyle.

Becky Settlemyer placed second at the state meet in both the 200 individual medley and the 400 freestyle. She was under the national record in the individual medley and under the state record in both events.

Patti Schropp won second place in the 50 freestyle and fourth in the 100 freestyle. She holds the school record in both races.

Janet Willoughby, swimming the 50 freestyle and Holly Hull, swimming the 200 individual medley, both made decisive victories in placing sixth in their event.

Other outstanding swimmers who placed in the state meet were Kathy Jones in the 100 butterfly, Holly Hutchinson in the 100 backstroke, Nat Fobes and Laura Jones swimming the 100 breaststroke, and both divers, Laurel Prior and Randi Ray.

The 400 freestyle relay, comprised of Jayne Hudelson, Mindy Schnitger, Carol Ely and Holly Hull swam to a victorious sixth place and confirmed Roosevelt as first in the state.

Gymnasts take third straight state title

Roosevelt's girls gymanstics team, coached by Earle Duggan, rolled through another undefeated season, and easily won their third straight State title for the 1973 season.

Tremendous depth proved too much as the Riders racked up 658.3 points to second-place Bettendorf's 554.5 in the state meet held at Veterans Memorial Auditorium.

In the individual events at the State meet Diane Sargent won the balance beam with Kathy Keck coming in fifth. In the floor exercise Margie Hudelson finished first, Miss Sargent 2nd, Miss Keck 4th, and Jill Carey finished 5th. Miss Keck, Miss Hudelson, Miss Sargent, and Miss Carey swept the first four places in vaulting, and Miss Keck and Miss Hudelson took 2nd and 4th respectively in the uneven parallel bars. Roosevelt took all six places in the trampoline, Miss Hudelson, Miss Carey, Miss Sargent, Carol McDonald, Karen Jepsen, and Jane Hudelson took the honors in that order. Miss McDonald and Miss Keck took 1st and 2nd in tumbling with Miss Sargent and Miss Hudelson tying for 6th. In the all-around Miss Sargent, Miss Keck, and Miss Hudelson swept the first three places.

Miss Keck wound up the season with a team high of 26 first place finishes. Margie Hudelson, Miss Sargent, and Miss Carey had 22,19, and 5 first place finishes respectively.

Other team members are Juniors Anne Gibbs, and Mary Eddy, Sophomores Anne Mabry, Robin Barnes, Kim Carey, Debbie Jepsen, Debbie Hestbech, Sherry McClosky, Cary Lomen, and Senior Lynn Randolph, and Freshman Carol McDonald.

It looks as if more championships will be rolling in as Margie Hudelson and Miss Randolph are the only members of this Sophomore dominated squad that will graduate.

The 1973 Roosevelt Boys Track squad went through a rather disappointing season this year. Only a few individuals performed fairly consistently throughout the year. Juniors Mike Bloomburg, Jim Noyce, and Mike Fox all qualified for the State meet in their respective events.

The Riders opened the year losing to Valley 74-68. Seniors Paul Craft and Ray Hays took first and second in the shot-put with heaves of 44'7½" and 43'8½" respectively. Bloomburg won the high jump, 120 high hurdles, and the 180 low hurdles. Fox took second in the long-jump, while Noyce took first in the 440 and 880 yard

Roosevelt finished last in a triangular meet with Tech and Lincoln. Tech finished with 75, Lincoln 73 and the Riders wound up with 34. Bloomburg won the high-jump with a jump of 6'0" and the 120 high hurdles with a 15.5

time. Junior Dave Durden won the pole vault with a jump of 10'.

The Riders finished near the bottom in the Valley Relays as Bloomburg took fourth in the 120 high's. The Shuttle Relay team of Jim Davis, Art Lee, Fox, and Bloomburg finished fifth.

Up at Ames, the only first place finishing was won by the 880 relay. Mark Reese, John Bucksbaum, John Donner, and Dan Spriggs clocked in at 1:36.1.

Roosevelt finished last in their District held at Urbandale May 11. Fox took second in the long-jump with a leap of 19'4". Bloomburg's 15.2 was good enough for second in the 120 high hurdles. Noyce finished second in the 440 with a 53.1.

Although Bloomburg, Noyce, and Fox didn't place in the State Meet, they will be back, returning along with all the other underclassmen to provide a brighter future for Roosevelt track.

Third in Sectional Fourth in District

The 1973 Girls Golf team finished their season with a fine 6-1 record. Led by senior, captain Jamie Bonta, the squad placed second in the metro conference.

Other top golfers were seniors Natalie Fobes, and Tris Sammon, junior Nancy Nicholas, and sophomores Sandy Willett, Chris Street, and Nancy Barr.

Bonta's six-hole total of 32 strokes, and Natalie Fobes' 185 yard birdie on the final hole led the Riders in a 136-138 victory over Lincoln. Roosevelt beat North, 98-109 with help from Bonta's four-hole, 20 stroke total.

Roosevelt then beat Dowling 143-162. The only Rider loss of the season was to Valley 152-146. The girls then triumphed in their next three confrontations over East 125-173, Tech 195-249, and Hoover 142-156.

Bonta was medalist in all seven of their meets including the sectional and district. Among the top finishers for the Riders were Willett, Fobes, Nicholas, and Sammons.

Jamie was the only Roosevelt girl to qualify for the state meet and finished fourth with an 86 stroke score, 83 was the low score.

Golfers finish 6-2; tie for metro

Led by seniors Dan Spencer and Tom Child, the Roosevelt boys finished the 1973 season with a 6-2 record, tied for the Metro title, and finished 3rd in their sectional.

The Riders opened the season losing to East 168-162 at Waveland April 2nd. Spencer and Child shot 39's as Roosevelt beat Valley 162-165.

Child hitting a 39 led the Riders past North 167-184.

Roosevelt then traveled to Newton and came back with a 167-170 victory. Spencer shot a 38.

The Riders whipped west-side rival Hoover 160-172, as Spencer shot a 38 and Child a 39. John Evans and Bob McDonald hit a 41 and a 42 respectively.

Roosevelt rested their top golfers and still shot down Tech 169-197. Kipper Albertson shot a 40, while Jim Rasley, Wally Jones, and Tom McDonald all hit 43's.

In one of the most exciting meets of the year the Riders upset a favored Lincoln team 155-157 at Waveland. Spencer and Evans shot a 37 and a 38 respectively. Child and Rasley each notched a 40.

The Riders closed the season losing a close match to Dowling 157-155.

Dan Spencer was medalist in six of the seven meets he participated in.

The team and coaches nervously watch as the Riders skim by Hoover 65-62 to win the city championship.

The newly-established girls basketball team at Roosevelt proved to be quite talented in their first year of competition. The girls managed to win 9 out of 10 games which gave them the title of city champs.

Coached by Mrs. Eula Cole, the cagers came from behind to win their first game against East. Then they went on to win four more games and finished undefeated in first-round play.

With each of the city teams improving, the tension grew as the Riders lost the second time around to East.

Being tied for first place with Lincoln, the girls had to fight hard to gain sole possession of first place and keep it.

Victories over Lincoln, North, Tech, and Hoover in the last four games entitled the team to have the first girls' basketball championship in the city.

The team consisted of ten seniors and ten juniors, with Myra Rabinovitz and Heidi Williams leading as co-captains.

Kathy Brittain sparked the Riders in the forward court with a season average of 36 points per game. She accomplished a career high of 45 points when the Riders beat Tech 64-48.

Although Kathy Brittain was high scorer in every game, other offensive action was contributed to keep the team winning when Kathy was guarded heavily.

Myra Rabinovitz scored her season high of 18 points in the first game with Hoover and Janet Willoughby dumped in 18 points in the second round with the Huskies to acquire her season high also.

Carol McDaniel played well and scored her high of 13 points in the game against East to give the Riders a close victory.

Roosevelt's defensive court proved to be the main source contributing to many tough victories. The guards showed they were very difficult to score against as they kept stealing or rebounding the ball and feeding it back to their forwards.

Kittie Davis played her best defense against Hoover in first round play, but was lost during the game with an injury which restricted her from playing the rest of the season.

Becky Settlemyer was added to the combination of Kim Stone and Kerry Brittain to make a tall court which accomplished a very tough 2-1 zone defense.

Heidi Williams, Alisa Robbins and Margo Hestbech showed their quickness and skill and contributed to many victories.

Kim Stone was high rebounder on the team with an average of 5.6 rebounds a game.

Next year there will be four returning lettermen to the team, plus many skilled sophomores.

Led by co-captains Carol Ruby and Becky Morgan, the sophomore cagers ended the season 6-4, which put them in second place in the city.

The Riders captured their first victory against East, 46-18, with freshman Janet McCracken high scorer with 24 points. The team lost by one point to Lincoln in the next game, after hearing they lost their forward McCracken with an injury suffered the previous night.

Kathy Burch goes in for a lay-up.

Two wins were captured and then three losses recorded to make the team 3-4.

The girls had improved to beat North and Tech and in the last game against Hoover, the Huskies were trailing 30-2 at half-time. The Riders went on to beat them by 22 points.

Carol Ruby was high scorer for the season with an average of 24 points per game. She also shot 50% from the freethrow line.

Kathy Burch was slow to start but by the end of the season she had earned a starting position on the forward court.

Becky Morgan played forward and guard during the season. She grabbed 62 rebounds for a high number on the team.

Darlene Neff and Jule Lutz had great steals on the guard court. Neff had 40 steals for the season high.

With four freshmen on the team the sophomores next year will have experience and talent and should be very strong.

With an abundance of good swimmers, the tankers had a successful 1973 season, taking fourth in state. The 200 Medley Relay captured the top spot in state with a winning time of 1:43:0.

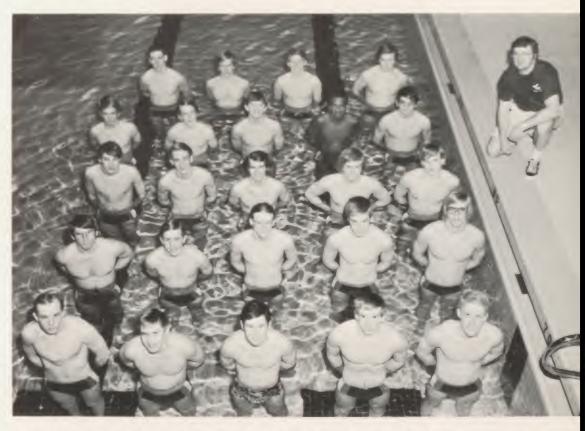

The Riders had 10 tankers and two relay teams qualifying for state competition. Qualifiers not reaching the finals were Craig Harr, Greg Richardson, John Carberry and Jim Crispin swimming the 400 free relay. John Stevenson swam the 400 freestyle and Al Koch plunged in the 100 butterfly competition.

In District, the tankers placed second to Hoover, losing only by one point even though the Riders won 6 of 11 events. District winners were the 200 medley relay team of Randy Atess, Ward Klein, Al Koch and Jim Crispin. Randy Jones won the 50 free and the 100 butterfly and also won the 400 free relay along with Craig Harr, Dave Harvey, and Jim Crispin. Doug Campbell took the diving event and Ward Klein captured the 100 breaststroke.

The Riders were also Metro Champs and ended the season 8-1.

The only state championship won by the Riders was captured in the very first event at state. The medley relay with Randy Atess swimming backstroke, Ward Klein the breaststroke, Randy Jones the butterfly, and Jim Crispin the freestyle, swam to the victory in a time of 1:43:0, which qualified them for all-American.

Anchored by Jim Crispin, the relay was in second place after the third man touched but Crispin poured it on and passed the other swimmer to give the Riders a close victory.

Roosevelt's medley relay also captured first place in the district meet, with the same swimmers except Al Koch. He swam the fly leg of the relay and was later replaced by Jones, who had swam on the 400 free relay that won in district also.

The state-winning relay set a new school record with their time received in the state meet.

He was part of the district winning free relay team and also qualified in the 200 and 400 free for state. He then went on to place seventh in the 200 and eighth in the 400 in the consolation races.

All-American diver Doug Campbell won both the Metro and district championship and went into the state meet favored to win. A bad day against strong competition left him in second place.

Captain Ward Klein, swimming breaststroke events, captured a first place in the medley relay and a second place in the 100 breaststroke.

Another all-around swimmer, Randy Jones, ended the season with a first place victory in the medley relay swimming the fly leg. He also captured a fourth placing in the 100 butterfly. The

The first round of Sub-State action witnessed a city rematch as the Riders again faced No. 2 Valley. And again the outcome was the same with the Tigers winning 66-51. # Al Comito ends 24 brilliant years at TRHS

Al Comito ended a brilliant 24 year coaching career at Roosevelt this year handing the job over to Coach Ron Adcock.

Comitos' teams at Roosevelt won an astonishing 365 games while losing 143. Comito started coaching at Roosevelt in 1949 after successfully coaching in small towns and after a sports career at Lincoln High School and Iowa Teachers College. His clubs own or shared 17 city series or Des Moines Metropolitan Conference crowns and reached the State Tournament six times.

His first year at Roosevelt was a tough one, finishing with an 11-6 record. Two of his victories though were over his old school, Lincoln. The coach of the Railsplitters then, is the present principle of Roosevelt, Mr. Bruce Gardner, who never beat Mr. Comito.

Comito's best year was in 1965 when the Roughriders lost only two games, both by one point, and won the State Championship by beating St. Mary's of Clinton 83-51. The Comito coached teams of 1954 and 1968 reached the finals but were beaten by Muscatine and Storm Lake respectively. Comitos' last team shared the Metro title with Lincoln and finished with a 15-7 record. The Riders were beaten out in the finals of the Sub-State by Marshalltown. That Sub-State final berth was the ninth in eleven years for Comito.

To top off a brilliant career, Comito was named to the Iowa High School Athletic Association's Hall of Fame last winter during the Girls Basketball Tournament.

Although Al Comito is not on the bench anymore, his spirit and enthusiasm is felt wherever he sits.

Bottom Right: Comito emerges from traditional victory shower as the riders won the State Championship of 1965 by beating Clinton St. Marys' 83-51.

The 1972 Roosevelt baseball squad was the best in the school's 50 years. The 14 man squad was a perfect balance of speed, pitching, defense and hitting. The Riders placed third in the tough metro race but came back in tournament play to capture the sectional and district crowns. The teams depth and support from the bench were great assets to the team who reached the final eight teams in the state. The team coached by Ron Adcock, finished with a 21-7 record and was the only Roosevelt team ever to reach the state tournament. Roosevelt's power was evident by scoring 161 runs while giving up only 68. Their spirit was exemplified by their manager "Coach" Robert Jeffers.

The glovemen led off the season by dumping Urbandale 13-3 in five innings. The Riders pounded out 12 hits including a homerun by Joe Tilton. The Riders then traveled to Boone to beat the defending state champions 6-2. Fred Young struck out 12 batters and Dennis Sears unloaded a homerun to pace the Riders.

Craig Harvey and Nick Strickler combined to shut out Johnston 15-0. Craig Schroeder, Dennis Sears, and Doug Peterson all bombed homers in the first inning.

Roosevelt then split a double-header with Ankeny taking the opener 4-1 on Fred Young's one hit pitching. The Rosies out hit Ankeny in the second game, but errors cost them the game losing 9-7 for the Riders first loss of the season.

Fred Young then struck out 11 Ames batters and allowed only one hit as the Riders shut out Ames 8-0. Dan Gibbons powered the Riders with a homerun.

Roosevelt opened up their metro season dropping two close games. Lincoln 3-2 and Hoover 3-5. A rare triple play helped Roosevelt trip Tech 4-2 as Tom Economos and Craig Schroeder supplied the offensive power.

Nick Strickler then shut out North 5-0, with his ten strikeout pitching. Strickler also supplied all the offense needed by driving in the two runs.

Errors and Dennis Sears' 11 walks cost the Riders as they went down in defeat to Dowling 6-3.

Dick McDonalds' tenth inning, bases loaded, triple carried Roosevelt to a 4-1 victory over East.

In their fourth game in four days, Roosevelt whipped Valley 4-1. Nick Stricklers' pitching and Jerry Mitchells' homer helped raise the Riders record to 9-4.

For the only time all season the Rosies were shut out, Lincoln taking the game 2-0.

Fred Young and Nick Strickler then combined to shut out North 10-0 in five innings. Doug Peterson and Jerry Mitchell paced the Rider attack with three RBI's each.

Dennis Sears struck out ten as Roosevelt ripped non-conference foe Indianola 10-0 in six innings. Jim Monoachino and Dennis Sears both hammered for the Riders as they released a ten hit attack.

Roosevelt then dumped Tech 5-2 behind Fred Young's pitching and hitting.

East again caused the Riders problems as they had to go ten innings before finally putting the Scarlets away 6-5. Fred Young socked a three-bagger to set up Doug Peterson's run scoring single.

Roosevelt then came up against highly touted Dowling. Fred Young hurled a five-hitter and the Rosies four run, ninth inning proved to be too much for the Maroons, with Joe Tilton driving in three runs. Roosevelt dropped their final metro game to Valley 5-3. Five runs off of Dennis Sears in the second inning proved to be too much as the Riders rally fell short.

Shortstop Max Olson is in route to complete a double play.

Fred Young shows form that placed him on the all-state squad.

Fred Young prepared to fire a throw to 1st base as he picks up a slow roller in front of Jerry Mitchel.

Dick McDonald lays down a perfect burst to set up a Rider score.

Catcher Joe Tilton blocks the plate against Dowling to snuff their rally.

Riders capture sectional and district championships

Roosevelt wound up their metro season at 9-5 standing at third place in the conference.

The glovemen began their tournament drive against Tech. Roosevelt then avenged two earlier losses to Lincoln by shutting down the Railsplitters offensive attack with a two hit, ten strikeout performance. Dennis Sears dominated the Lincoln pitching by slamming two homeruns and a double.

Roosevelt then let loose on Indianola's all-conference pitcher for eight runs whipping them 8-0. Jerry Mitchell pounded in three runs for the Riders to support Dennis Sears pitching.

In the sectional championship game Fred Young and Nick Strickler proved to be too much for Chariton giving up only one hit. Strickler rapped a bases loaded double to drive in two runs and lead the Riders eight hit onslaught.

The showdown game against Dowling came with one of the largest crowds ever to watch a metro game on hand. Fred Young allowed Dowling's big bats only two runs at the Riders came from behind to win 4-2. Craig Schroeder's two and Dick McDonald's perfect throw to catcher

Joe Tilton at the plate were the key to the Riders triumph.

The Riders took nine innings to beat Marshalltown at Ames for the district championship. Fred Young turned in a strong relief job and also knocked in the winning run.

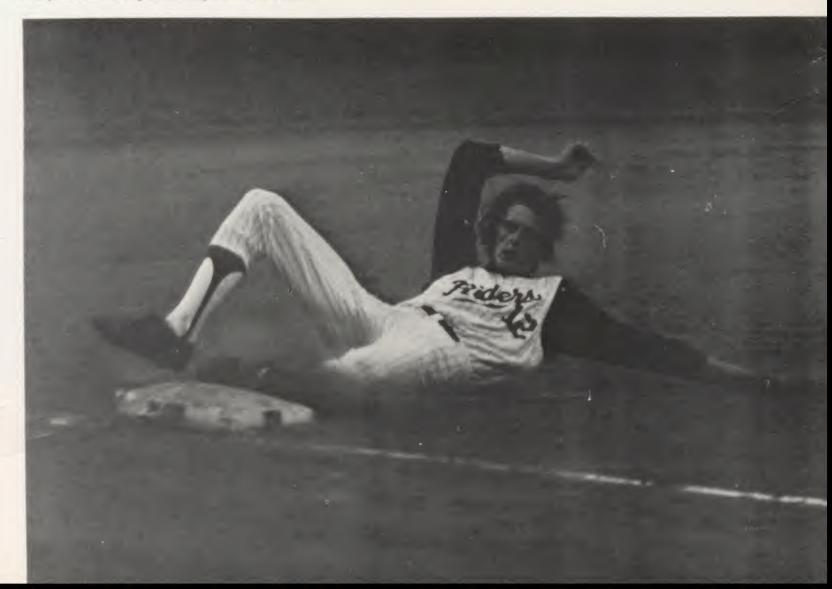

The Roughriders reached the final eight teams in the state tournament held at Cedar Rapids. Fred Young's usual brilliant performance wasn't there as he walked eight men in the first two innings, while Granville (Spalding) built up a six run lead. The parks long fences and Granvilles fine defense turned back the Riders rally. Max Olson was the leading hitter against Granville's weak pitching staff. Thus the season ended for a team many thought the best in the state and certainly Roosevelts best ever.

Fred Young was voted the most valuable player for the third straight year. Jerry Mitchell was named captain. The Riders placed five men on the all metro squad with Fred Young as pitcher, Max Olson at shortstop, Dennis Sears at first base, Craig Schroeder in center field and Jerry Mitchell at third base.

Members of the 1972-73 school board are, left to right, Mrs. Kate Goldman, Dr. George G. Caudill, Mr. Merle F. Schlampp, Herrold V. Mann, Secretary, Board of Education; Dr. John E. McCaw, President, Board of Education; Dr. Dwight M. Davis, Superintendent of Schools; Dr. Ora E. Niffenegger, Mr. Nolden Gentry, and Mrs. Jack Spevak.

Each year, with more new and liberal programs being initiated at Roosevelt, the role of our administration increases. Roosevelt's new attendance system may be enjoyable for students and teachers, but it means increased disciplinary problems for our principal, vice-principal, and advisor.

cipal, vice-principal, and advisor.

Not only must they handle discipline problems, but they also oversee all curriculum changes. This too, is no easy job, as Roosevelt is adopting more new courses especially designed for the students' interest and need.

Counselors enjoy new center

Roosevelt's four counselors moved from their cramped quarters on second floor to the new open-space counseling center located between the library and business wing.

The center is equipped with private conference rooms, air conditioning, carpeting, a new photostat machine for the registrar, and a college guidance center especially helpful to seniors.

Unlike previous years, students now have their choice as to which counselor they would like to consult, instead of being assigned to one.

Also new, are the two counselors' aids, who do much of the paper work, freeing counselors for more time with the students.

Mrs. Wehrle lends an understanding ear to senior Tim Nelson's perplexing schedule problems.

English department plans for future

This year the English department is gathering new ideas for future English courses. Plans are in the making for a non-print media course. The class will offer a study of film, radio, and television.

Individualized reading is a very popular

English course this year. Individualized reading offers the student a chance to read the books of his choice. The student discusses these books with his teacher and receives credit for his understanding of the book.

Social science dept. features diversity

Mr. Shaffer shows his calm when teaching.

Roosevelt's social studies department has opened up five new courses this year. Four of these courses are called area studies and are offered to sophomores in place of World History. They include: Asian Studies, Soviet Union, African Studies, and Latin America.

Juniors and seniors also may take elective history courses which include Anthropology, Advanced Economics, Psychology, Black History, and Sociology, a new course this year taught by Mr. John Shaffer.

Roosevelt has one new history teacher this year. He is Mr. Tom Williams, from Connecticut. Mr. Williams teaches African Studies and Black History.

New course for science department

Mr. Phillips daydreams during biology.

The science department has adopted a popular new course in environmental science. The class is taught by Mr. Herman Kirkpatrick and offers the student an insight into our environment, how it is being endangered, and what we can do to preserve it.

Although not new at Roosevelt, math instructor Mr. David Darling is teaching his first year of Physical Science at Roosevelt. Aside from this, he will be teaching college math to occupy his busy time schedule.

Language and fine arts advance creativity

Roosevelt's art department received a face-lift this year. It started with Mrs. Judith Milligan, a Roosevelt graduate, joining the department. Mrs. Milligan occupies the former journalism room, furnished with new tables and chairs. Art students are also designing and painting a wall mural for the stairs leading to the third-floor art department. Many new courses were offered this year capitalizing the new interest in crafts.

Roosevelt's language arts department is supplementing their classes with extracurricular language clubs. French and Spanish dinners and German soccer games have been a part of the festivities.

The drama department undertook many presentations this year, including the fall play, "Cyrano De Bergerac."

Vocal and instrumental music departments helped the drama department in presenting the musical "Pajama Game,"

April 6th and 7th. Leading players were Jeff Wills, Natalie Fobes, Jeff Mosher and Jenny Cochran. This was the first time "Pajama Game" had been produced by a Des Moines high school.

Instrumental music made good use of the new band room adjacent to the swimming pool. More storage space and better acoustics are just a few of the advantages.

Practical subjects interest many students

Roosevelt's business department is training students for after-graduation jobs and to be better college students. The work-study program and DECA give students a chance for important on-the-job training.

The homemaking department is responding to the pressure of "men's lib" this year, as proven by the male population in foods classes. Two new teachers, Mrs. Katherine Lapham and Miss Sandra Hasenclever, joined the homemaking staff.

An increase in demand for drivers' ed. made it necessary to move to a larger class-room. Students receive actual driving experience and instruction from the simulator, films and text books.

Roosevelt's new shop teacher, Mr. David Beech, is planning a new electronics course to be added to the industrial arts department next year.

Gym, study hall provide options for students

Roosevelt students discharge their extra energies in the physical education department, where activities vary from weightlifting to ping-pong. Mrs. Nancy Swanson joined the girls' gym staff this year and is in charge of swimming.

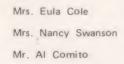

Study hall teachers, librarians and teachers' aides are valuable assets to the student since independent study plays a large part in today's educational system.

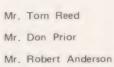

The cafeteria offers students a quiet atmosphere for study, unlike the student center where good food and conversation prevail.

Office staff and nurse assist students

Mrs. Bridget Sweet

Roosevelt's school nurse, Mrs. Bridget Sweet, remained active this year by keeping health records of every student. Mrs. Sweet also supplements the biology classes with lectures and discussions on sex education. She considers informing students on venereal disease one of her most important jobs.

Maintaining attendance records, figuring grade averages and typing programs are just a few of the jobs that Roosevelt's office staff undertakes. Students help out by answering phones, and running errands.

The TRHS office staff includes: Mrs. Dolores Maertz, Mrs. Shirley Robinette and Mrs. Eunice Ash.

"Ah, ... I couldn't be that tall!"

Staff workers promote learning

Mrs. Jessie Fairbanks, lunchroom manager, directs her staff to the food service of hot lunches in the cafeteria, both Type A and a-la-carte, and sack lunches for the student center.

The man whose job is to keep the school clean and running smoothly is Mr. Bruce Tyler, head custodian. His staff works in shifts to keep halls and parking lots free of litter and in good order.

The next two years...

important, aren't they?

After your high school years, the next two are mighty important—the transition years, the formative years, the maturing years.

At Grand View we know the importance of your next two years—that's why we offer personalized attention in small classes, excellent academic and residential facilities, an outstanding faculty, reasonable tuition, and plenty of extra-curricular activities. And what's more, we have a very special inter-institutional Three-Year Program that you might be interested in.

Grand View is a fully-accredited, private, two-year co-educational liberal arts college of the Lutheran Church in America, founded in 1896, and located in Des Moines, Iowa's friendly capital city with a population of 220,000.

But, that's only a beginning. May we tell you more? Just write or call:

Why should the average high school student know and care about electric heat?

Easy..."that's where it's at..."

"It", meaning the state of energy science for the rest of the century "It" seems to say to us that the world's supply of inexpensive energy must come from electricity

Gas. coal, and oil are depleting natural resources: so they're going to be used more sparingly, and they'll cost more.

Using energy from the sun, the tide and the core of the earth are all great ideas, but indications are that solving the problems of harnessing them economically, is still beyond the turn of the century.

So it looks like electricity is "It" We must use it wisely. The most practical answer is year around use of nuclear-generated electricity. That means heating as well as cooling. Think about it...

At nearby civilian universities. At Army schools Through correspondence or extension courses. If you would like to work toward a baccalaureate or an advanced degree you, get financial help from the Army. Generally, if your studies are in a find considered valuable to the nation's defense, we pay the full tuition. If you choose non-defense related courses well still pay 75%. And if you need a high school diploma before starting more advanced work well help you get that, too.

You probably won't be able to earn a college degree during one enlistment but you should get an excellent start on it, and still have two choices when your enlistment is up. You can either stay in and continue your studies, or leave the Army and continue your education under the GIB.

When you successfully complete your enlistment, you'll get 36 months of financial assistance at the college of your choice. As a veteran without dependents you'll get $175 a month, $205 with one dependent, and $230 with two dependents. If you're senous about continuing your education, today's Army is behind you.

As part of Younkers firm belief in the young people of today, a program is offered each year for the Des Moines area schools...TEEN BOARD for junior and senior girls, and ADVISORY BOARD for junior and senior boys. These young people, selected to represent their schools, are chosen for leadership qualities, high scholastic standings, personal recommendations from school administrators and evaluation from members of the retiring boards, plus their interest and ability in retailing and fashion. They give talks in their schools and to other groups on good grooming, publish a monthly newsletter and work in various junior departments each Saturday. Younkers salutes the representatives from Roosevelt High School for a job very well done.

In Peace

As I cross the ocean of time giving what I have, taking what I'm offered, forever at Peace.

sailing with the wind, rowing against the wind,
   walking on the ocean floor,
  traveling above the surface,
  going under and resurfacing
     only to go under and rise once again,
   I must offer to all the services of my vessel.
As I travel, barefooted, through the desert of life
   Living what I can,
   dying to what I must,
   I take a part of each of you
     with me
  I leave a part of myself with you.
If, by chance, our past should meet,
If the desert melts into the sea
        and
We find ourselves face to face
be silent.
Know that I am truth
        and each of you are truth.
Take my hands and know
  that we are all a part of eternity.
   that no word need be spoken to make us anymore so,
   and that through this silence
We are aware and are and will be
```
